Tribute from Nunes-Pottinger Funeral Service Staff

Nunes-Pottinger Funeral Service Staff send our condolences to family and friends.

Tribute from Edward Arnold

Relation: I worked with him on the building of the Inkameep winery

When I was President of Brights Wines it was Ted who introduced the concept of a winery on Inkameep land to me. He played a large role in making it happen.

He was a hard working man with a vision and a great sense of humour. A vineyard pioneer that deserves a prominent spot in Okanagan history.

Ed Arnold

Tribute from Terry Reimer

Relation: Work.

I hadn't heard Ted's name in many years. As a young man in Oliver I was very lucky to get a job helping to start up a Vineyard which would be a first in our area. Ted was a great boss and back then he would have the odd cold beer for us on a very hot and long day. Great sense of humour and if you worked hard it stayed with you. We had a nickname for him the first time he took his hat off in the summer weather and it was "Dazzle" or the Dutchman. Dazzle because of a lack of hair and the glint and shine off his head.

My condolences to the family, he was a good man.

Tribute from LLOYD SCHMIDT

Relation: Through the wine industry

Ted was a gentlemen and a friend, We worked together for the future of the BC wine industry. I will miss Ted's short phone calls !!!!!
