Relation: Family Friend

I am so sad to hear of Tracy's passing and my heart goes out to all of her family. She was such a bright light in many people's lives and you couldn't help but have fun around her. She will be missed so much and remembered by so many for a long, long time.

Several years ago, three of us gals were invited, along with others to be part of a Twitter group; Tracy from Canada, Cherie from Pennsylvania and me from Texas.

Tracy's personality lit up the "room", the Twitter room. When everyone was freaking out over COVID, she kept us all grounded with continuous belly laughing jokes about the toilet paper shortage :-)!

After the group disband, Tracy stayed friends with Cherie and me. We three became very close friends and sisters in Christ. So when Tracy confided in us that she was battling cancer, but was standing firm in receiving her healing, we joined her in faith believing for healing! I prayed most days, but Cherie prayed EVERY DAY! We had others join us in prayer too, from Arizona to Pennsylvania! She was covered in prayer. And we also prayed for her dear family.

The Lord answered her prayer in a different way than we all wanted, though. He gave her a new body, with Him.

We will see her again, and forever. That is so comforting!

I miss her, can't talk to her on the phone. Her family can't hug her and be with her. But...we all will be with her, just not right now....we still have lots to do.

Abundant Blessings, Deep Love and a Huge Hug to all of Tracy's family and friends.

My heart is heavy with incredible sadness to hear this! Tracy was a spectacularly, beautiful person inside and out. I absolutely love and treasure the time we spent together and honestly have never laughed so hard and for so long in my whole life as when I was with Tracy. The time I spent with her changed the course of my life and I am so grateful for having known her. Sending love and my deepest condolences to Wade, Haley and Taylor . - rest in peace Tracy.

Tribute from Candace

Relation: Friend

To Wade, Haley and Tayler,

I am so sorry for the loss of your beautiful wife and mother.

I was deeply saddened to hear of Tracy's passing. She and I were close high school friends and I have so many great memories of our fun escapades together in her "mean, green, driving machine" (Tracy's words).

Tracy touched so many lives with her great sense of humour, positive attitude, cheerful smile and laughter - she will be missed by everyone who was blessed by her friendship.

May you find peace and comfort in remembering such a remarkable and loving lady.

Tribute from Sherry Cowan

Relation: Friend

We were so very saddened to hear of Tracy's passing, and wanted to convey our heartfelt condolences to her husband, family and precious grandson, that she loved so very much.

We met Tracy online several years ago, and became fast friends. There were 6 of us all scattered across Canada...BC, Alberta, Manitoba, and Ontario. We all planned to meet one day, but the pandemic threw a wrench in our plans.

Despite the distance, we all stuck together through life's challenges, ups and downs, and Tracy always had so much care and concern for everybody. But most of all, we had laughter. So many good times, it's difficult to put into words how special she was to us, and how she touched all of our lives.

When we learned she had become sick, we prayed with her for healing. She was such a bright light, and ferociously fought her illness through faith and love. Tracy was a wonderful friend, and we know she has moved on to a better place filled with the love and light of God. He had bigger plans for her.

We will always remember her as our very dear special friend. Tracy had such a spark in her, she made everybody's lives better for her having been in it. We pray for the sadness her family must feel to lose such a shining light.

Till we all meet again Tracy, I know you are safe in Gods arms.

Death relieves our loved ones of their suffering, but it puts us in pain... what a conflict. We are sorry for your loss.
