Dear Dos Santos and extended Family,

As you know more now than ever, Victor was a wonderful man and after saddness you can be proud. Your loss is on my mind and I pray for you all, his family was evident to be his biggest love.

With age, I have come to realize how grateful I am for having known people in my life and now I am thinking of you Victor. You were a gentle soul Victor, a loud voice, a great dance instructor, a welcoming smile and happy face, and never shy to say hello in public. We seemed to meet in the farthest of places, conversing over the growth of our families while taking our family vacations. I will remember you and I pray for you and journey to our Father's kingdom.

I pray for your beautiful family and their blessings in the future.

May you all be strong.

Tribute from Irene Pavao

Relation: VERY GOOD FRIEND!!

Our heart goes out to the family for the loss of your love one. Victor was my dancing partner for many years, and helped teach the youth group where his boys were involved. We shared many many laughs. I always asked him why do you want to dance with this chabby dady-----he said I like dancing with a good dancer, he always made me feel good. Victor was a true friend and always ready to help. Victor touched many many hearts!! RIP my friend until we meet again!!
