Tribute from Pat Martin

Relation: Niece

My dear Aunt Viola recently passed away. She was my Dad's sister, an amazing woman, and we had become close during the last year of her life. At 98, she still had all her mental faculties and was living at home in Oliver with Cousin Darryl.

I knew Aunt Viola could pass at any time and had mentally prepared myself. On our last phone call, a week before her death, she shared confidences she said she had never shared with anyone. I feel so grateful that she trusted me to do that. I ended the call with, "I love you," and she said, "I love you, too." And now she is gone.

We must treasure the people we love, and we must prioritize them over the other activities we get so involved in that are meaningless in the end. Love is what matters. Help us all to love our families, friends, and fellow humans in these divisive times. I miss you Aunt Viola.

Tribute from Gloria Hintz Moore

Relation: My godfathers wife

What a lovely service. A tribute to your mother. Alfred was my Godfather and I have many memories of both him and your mother while I was growing up in Oliver. In later years Viola phoned me every year on my birthday and we would have an hour's chat. I will miss the memories and laughs. Gloria
