We would like to send along our most sincere condolences to Robert and his family on the passing of Vivienne. We used to frequently have short visits and impromptu chats with her during her daily walks and we knew she was experiencing difficulty with health concerns and discomfort. By the grace of God she is no longer tormented with her struggles and we know by her genuine sincerity, kindness and wisdom she has left a lasting impact on family and all those friends who knew her. We will miss seeing her.
