Tribute from Diane Bird

Relation: Friend

I've known Bill Ross for as long as I've known his daughter Stacie. She and I attended dental school together and became lifelong friends. I would join Stacie on her visits up to Oliver on weekends away from university. Bill and Francie welcomed me into their home and I loved them right away. Bill was so generous and funny; his loss has left a vacuum in the lives of the people that knew and loved him. I will forever hear him say "Hi Di!". His positivity and wise advice will never leave me. My heart is with Bill's amazing family at this time. I love you all.

Tribute from Cheryl & Ernie Dumais

Relation: Friends

Francie and family,

We are so saddened by your tragic loss and have no words to ease your pain. Ernie and I extend our profound sympathies to all.

We will remember Bill as the bright, funny, ambitious, sometimes irreverent, larger than life character that he was. He had such a zest for life taking on many challenges with passion. He contributed to his community both in civic roles but also, as a volunteer. His accomplishments and relationships are too many to count. As has been said, he had his finger on the pulse of the community. But, his greatest passion was his love for Francie and his family. It was clear that he adored you all. You were his "reason to be". He will be greatly missed.

Tribute from Bill and Edna Barisoff

To Francie and family. We also are so saddened for the loss of a dear friend. Bill was "one of the best!" He was a tireless worker for what he believed in for the betterment of the community and for British Columbia. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.
