

REMEMBERING
William Treadwell

July 6, 1990 - May 9, 2017

With deep sorrow, we announce the sudden passing of William Treadwell on May 9, 2017 in Penticton, BC at the age of 26 years.

William is survived by his son Jaxen, age 3, brother Wesley, and his parents Doug & Carrie Treadwell, all of Oliver, BC as well as many cousins and aunts and uncles across Canada.

William graduated from SOSS in 2008 and has worked at Structurlam in Oliver for close to 5 years.

As a child, he was an avid bowler and soccer player. He enjoyed dirt biking, snowboarding, watching movies, listening to music, the holidays, and socializing with his many friends. Above all, he loved spending time with his son Jaxen, and deeply valued his relationship with his brother Wesley. William was extremely loyal, had a huge heart and would help anyone who needed it. He will be greatly missed.

A funeral service will be held at 2:00 P.M. Saturday May 27, 2017 at the Oliver Alliance Church.
