Tribute from Maureen Poucher

Relation: Hospice support group friend

My late husband and Yvonne met at the Hospice support group they both attended. The two of them formed a special bond. I found it a privilege to meet her on several occasions. She was a lovely person and will be missed.

Tribute from Johanna Stuart

I had the pleasure of knowing Yvonne. She was an energetic woman with a big smile and loving heart. I was in an online course with her and always enjoyed her thoughtful contributions to group discussions. She truly was a passionate educator and many children are lucky to have been under her care. To my dear friend Rachel and her family- wishing you all can find peace and comfort in happy memories during this delicate time.

Relation: I had the honour of working with your mom as a special education teacher in Gold Trail School District.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your mom. It truly is a loss for all who knew her - professionally and personally - she was so positive, made everyone around her feel good about themselves and was just such a beacon of light.
